Sir:

In response to the Office Action of July 6, 2009, Applicant filed Response "A" with a Petition to Revive an Unintentionally Abandoned Application on May 5, 2010. The Petition was granted, however, Applicant received a communication on June 10, 2010, indicating that Response "A" was not fully responsive. The present reply to the June 10, 2010 communication is due, with a one month extension of time on August 10, 2010. Please consider the following remarks:

REMARKS

In the Official Action of July 6, 2009, a Requirement for Election was made with respect to the various species of the generic invention. The Examiner determined that the species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked so as to form a general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. The Examiner has specifically stated that the claims are deemed to correspond to the following species: Species I, namely, many different organ solvents as recited in Claim 3; Species II, namely, many different fatty acids as recited in Claim 6; Species III, namely, many different soothing agents as recited in Claim 8; Species IV, namely, many different anti-
